

ECW WINTER MEETING

FEBRUARY 16, 2019

The Reverend Canon Dr. Allison DeFoor

Canon to the Ordinary

Canon DeFoor previously served parishes in four prisons in the Tallahassee area. He also served as an assistant at Grace Mission, an inner-city mission there. He has an extensive background in criminal justice, including service as a prosecutor, public defender, judge and was the elected Sheriff of Monroe County. A former law professor, he was the founding chair of the Project on Accountable Justice at FSU. He has degrees in law, criminology and theology. While Chair at Tallahassee Community College, he oversaw the opening of the first prison ever built on the campus of a community college. His real passion is for prisoners. (Luke 4:14 – 21).

The focus for our meeting will be learning about the ministry and interaction of our diocese with the prison system in our area. This will also be our meeting to draw for the free ECW Retreat Weekend.

St. Catherine's Episcopal Church Women will host our meeting.
