

Dear Diocese of Florida,

Category 4 Hurricane Ida has made landfall in southeastern Louisiana. We don't have to guess what a storm of this size can do — we've seen it before, 16 years ago to the day when Hurricane Katrina changed this region forever. So as we help communities in Ida's path, we are urgently asking for your support.

Your gift today will help us act quickly to support Episcopal dioceses across southeastern Louisiana, who have extensive experience preparing for and responding to disasters.

Our U.S. Disaster team is in touch with the Diocese of Louisiana and other regional partners to assess immediate need and plan for long-term recovery and healing, but this is just the beginning of this recovery and a long hurricane season. We must stay ready to act when the next storm hits, wherever it may be — and we are counting on our community to show what our faith can do.

Please make an urgent donation to our Hurricane Relief Fund today. You will help provide everything from food to blankets to pastoral care — bringing relief and comfort to those in the wake of catastrophic storms.

If you've already given to support our relief efforts in Haiti, thank you. I hope you'll find it in your hearts to give what you can to support those in Louisiana as well during these particularly challenging times.

Thank you in advance for your compassion, and for praying for those affected by Hurricane Ida.

Yours faithfully,
