

SECTION 3. Composition. Diocesan Convention will be composed of the following who shall have seat, voice and vote unless otherwise prohibited by Section 2 of this canon:

(a) Clergy Delegates. . To be a voting clergy delegate, a canonically resident priest or deacon must be (i) in good standing and (ii) actively serving, on a continuing basis, whether compensated or not, in a parish, mission, or office or ministry that, (A) as to a parish in the Diocese, is authorized by vestry and/or the rector of that parish and approved by the Bishop, or (B) as to a mission, or any office or ministry of the Diocese or the national Church (whether in the Diocese or not) approved by the Bishop, is licensed or appointed to such mission, office or ministry by the Bishop. Canonically resident priests and deacons in good standing who do not meet the criteria of the previous sentence have voice and seat at any convention of the Diocese. A priest or deacon may not be canonically resident in the Diocese while canonically resident in another diocese. When coming into this Diocese a priest or deacon coming from another diocese must have submitted to the Bishop letters dimissory that have been received and accepted. In the absence of a bishop diocesan, the Ecclesiastical Authority shall serve in lieu of a Bishop for purposes of this Section.

SECTION 3.- Composition.~~The~~ Diocesan Convention will be composed of the following who shall have seat, voice and vote unless otherwise prohibited by Section 2 ~~of this~~ canon:

(b) Clergy Delegates. ~~.. All canonically resident clergy of the Diocese in good standing. To be a voting clergy delegate, a canonically resident priest or deacon must be (i) in good standing and (ii) actively serving, on a continuing basis, whether compensated or not, in a parish, mission, or office or ministry that, (A) as to a parish in the Diocese, is authorized by vestry and/or the rector of that parish and approved by the Bishop, or (B) as to a mission, or any office or ministry of the Diocese or the national Church (whether in the Diocese or not) approved by the Bishop, is licensed or appointed to such mission, office or ministry by the Bishop. Canonically resident priests and deacons in good standing who do not meet the criteria of the previous sentence have voice and seat at any convention of the Diocese. A priest or deacon may not be canonically resident in the Diocese while canonically resident in another diocese. When coming into this Diocese a priest or deacon coming from another diocese must have submitted to the Bishop letters dimissory that have been received and accepted. In the absence of a bishop diocesan, the Ecclesiastical Authority shall serve in lieu of a Bishop for purposes of this Section.~~