Sermon/Bishop's Address to Convention

Bishop Howard addressed the 177th Convention and opened his comments by thanking those who were instrumental in planning today's gathering, the staff at the Diocesan office and at Camp Weed, and then discussed the many ways that we can be part of "bringing the Good News" in and throughout our Diocese.

Sharing the good news of Christ with others is a call we all share. All else pales in comparison. Bishop Howard asked everyone to reflect on where our attention has been focused recently; what has fed us; what has energized us in our respective ministries, what gives us the most joy. And conversely, what has drained us. Bishop Howard went on to discuss the important place that bringing the good news has in our lives, recognizing that we all have complicated lives. We are all in need. We not only share a community of pain but we are also members of a community of hope. We rejoice in Jesus and delight in sharing the Good News to the poor, oppressed, etc. We rejoice because we believe the Good News. Bishop Howard summarizes the Good News: "I've seen, I know, I've come to deliver you". Our need unlocks the heart of God. Nothing can separate us from His love. This is the message and truth that must be shared. It must be at the center of everything we do. We have the same needs as people did 3,000 years ago. They lived and preached the Gospel and we need to convey that same truth and hope to others. If we believe the Great Commission, then we do it – we share the Good News. Make it the focus of all you do. Bishop Howard challenged us to never preach a sermon that doesn't define our need and the promise of how God eases our pain. Now is the time to fill our life and ministry with the Good News of Christ; to sit at the feet of Christ and experience the love and mercy of Christ. And then share that with others.

Bishop Howard recognized Mr. Jack Tull, Vice-Chair of the Diocesan Council, to present Resolution 2020-001(R) - "15% Asking"

Whereas, historically, the Diocesan Asking of General Convention for contributions to the budget of The Episcopal Church (TEC) by a diocese has been at 19%. General Convention Resolution 2015-D013 was a compromise that lowered the Diocesan Asking to 15% along with a change to TEC Title I Canon I.4.6(f) which now reads "Full payment of the diocesan assessment(asking) shall be required of all Dioceses, effective January 1, 2019" The idea was that if all dioceses paid the 15% Asking then TEC Budget would be met. The diocesan asking percentage is set by General Convention.

2018 General Convention Resolution A225 (Adopt the Budget of The Episcopal Church) asks the following: "The funding policy for the period January 1, 2019 through December 31, 2021 is adopted based on a single Asking of the dioceses. After a $140,000 exemption from total income, a single Asking shall be applied at a flat rate of 15%, in each year 2019, 2020 and 2021 of the balance of income to the diocese, reported in the diocesan financial statements for the year two years prior to the year to which the pledge is applied." The Episcopal Diocese of Florida is 1 of 6 out of 103 domestic dioceses of TEC that does not pay the full 15% Asking. The Diocese of Florida currently pays 10.7%. The Finance Committee of the Executive Council of TEC has graciously allowed dioceses not currently at the 15% Asking level to request a waiver if the diocese makes a commitment to move towards the full asking. Failure to receive such a waiver shall render the diocese ineligible to receive grants or loans from the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society (The Episcopal Church) unless approved by Executive Council. This would include UTO grants.

Resolved, The Episcopal Diocese of Florida shall move towards the required 15% Asking to The Episcopal Church as follows: 11% 2020 12% 2021 13% 2022 14% 2023 15% 2024 and future years.

Resolved, In support and furtherance of the purpose of this resolution, the parishes and missions of the Diocese of Florida shall move towards an 11.25% Asking to the Diocese of Florida as follows: 10.25% 2020 / 10.50% 2021 / 10.75% 2022 / 11.00% 2023 /11.25% 2024 and future years.

Rationale: Parish giving to the diocese does not match diocesan giving to The Episcopal Church dollar for dollar. This is a giving on a percentage of a percentage basis. Acknowledging and understanding that money is most effective in ministry at the local level, and still wanting to make sure diocesan ministries are not the only ministries adversely affected by the change in canonical giving requirements, the churches will support the diocesan budget in a way that makes upstream giving revenue neutral.

Resolved, The Bishop of Florida will appoint a representative(s) to work with The Rev. Mally Ewing Lloyd, Chair of Executive Council's Finance and Assessment Review Committee to submit the required paperwork to grant a waiver to the Diocese of Florida for the 2019-2021 and 2022-2024 triennials. The appointment will remain in effect as needed until the full asking is being paid by the Diocese of Florida.

After a call for a vote, the resolution failed.

The provisions of these Canons shall be equally applicable to men and women and the use of one gender includes the other whenever the context so admits or implies.

SECTION 2. Diocesan Convention. The Diocesan Convention is the legislative authority and chief policy making body for program and finance in the Diocese and shall be composed of the Bishop, Clergy canonically resident in the Diocese, and members representing each congregation of the Diocese. Congregations, who for two successive years, do not file the Annual Parochial Report by the deadline established by General Convention, or do not file the canonically required annual audit, shall have seat and voice, but not vote at the next Annual Meeting of the Diocesan Convention. Notification will be sent by March 30 to the Sr. Warden and Priest-in-Charge of any congregation not in compliance with this section. Appeals for exceptions must be made to the Bishop and Diocesan Council no later than November 30. Lack of notification will not release congregations from their responsibility.

- (c) Quorum. A quorum of any Diocesan Convention or any meeting thereof shall be one-half of the Clergy in good standing having cure in the Diocese, and one-half of the duly elected lay delegates, but a less number may adjourn from day-to-day.

SECTION 3. Composition. The Diocesan Convention will be composed of the following who shall have seat, voice and vote unless otherwise prohibited by Section 2 of this canon:

- (a) Clergy Delegates. All canonically resident clergy of the Diocese in good standing.

Diocesan Council
April 6, 2019 Meeting Minutes
(Amended)

Those present: Rt. Rev. John Howard, Rt. Rev. Dorsey Henderson, Cn. Allison DeFoor, Cn. Wiley Ammons, Cn. John Wesley, Rev. Ronnie Willerer, Rev. George Hinchliffe, Mr. Ben Hill, Mr. Jack Tull, Mr. Jim Salter, Ms. Courtney Carter, Mr. Byron Greene and Hank Wilson, Esq.

The regular stated meeting of the Diocesan Council was called to order at 10:00 a.m. at the Diocesan House in Jacksonville, Florida with a quorum of members present. Bishop Howard opened the meeting in prayer and called on The Rev. Ronnie Willerer for the devotion.

The minutes of the previous meeting were approved as read and carried. Bishop Howard reported that this was the first council meeting since convention in January, noting that a vice president for council needed to be voted on. Bishop Howard asked Mr. Jack Tull to continue in this role, which was unanimously passed and carried.

Bishop Howard then gave his report which included various changes at the next diocesan convention, namely more fellowship, by beginning with Friday night dinner for those interested. Attendance not required, but invited. He then gave a summary of his recent and various activities, including: Ecumenical Meeting (f/k/a LARC); Presiding Bishop Michael Curry's recent visit and highlighted visits while here, most notably confirmations at Wakulla Correctional Institution; Communion Partner Bishops meeting at Camp Weed (English and Canadian), in which there was further discussion on the issue of gay marriage; Bishop's Institute event on the Theology of Andy Griffith; Diocesan Capital Campaign, in which over $13M had already been raised; meeting with Regional Canons; new rector at Trinity, St. Augustine, Matt Marino; University of North Florida's new chaplain, Sarah Locke (ECLA), who will also assist at Church of the Redeemer; House of Bishops meeting; Grace Mission, Tallahassee Gala/service/board meeting; and finally, advised that Allison Vining would be leaving Camp Weed as Summer Camp Director to return to the YMCA for advancement in her vocation. Bishop Howard asked for prayers for Mtr. Celeste Tisdelle, who has had a recent recurrence of leukemia.

Vice Chair, Jack Tull, then made inquiries over convention, as to whether there would be ministry tables, and whether ministry reports were to be given. Bishop Howard confirmed there would be ministry tables, and that he wanted to be especially conscious of time during convention, but that the request for reading reports was worthy of discussion.

Treasurer, Ben Hill, then gave his report. Ben noted that he would like to make up the $38,500 in unpaid pledges from last year (generally written off). We have $43k in pledges so far this year, although not paid. Per Rev. George Hinchliffe, 16 churches have not paid anything (including Bethany, Christ Church, Monticello and Welaka). Ben reported that our expenses are now under control with more accountability and no spending without prior approval. It was discussed and decided that Ben would send out "reminders" once a year to vestries over pledge due dates. Along these lines, Ben relayed that Mr. Jorge Maysonet,

Controller, suggested a Peer Review Committee to meet with these delinquent churches to listen and help, to assist, coach and guide. The committee would consist of 2 priests, 2 senior wardens and 2 treasurers. Rev. George Hinchliffe gave the names of 8 volunteers for this committee:

2 Priests:

Joe Gibbes
Bert Daly

2 Senior Wardens:

Fran Linder
Hal Airth

2 Treasurers:

Pat Dussinger
Holly Maddox

This was motioned by Ben Hill, seconded and carried. Bishop Howard asked that a Resolution to be drawn endorsing this proposal. Council unanimously agreed that this was a great goodwill effort. Cn. Wiley Ammons proposed his draft version of the Resolution, Ms. Courtney Carter made a motion to approve Cn. Ammons' Resolution, it was unanimously passed and carried (copy attached).

Next, Ben Hill reported that lease payments to the Diocese were slightly behind, conversely, the loans are looking good; Programs & Ministries were $8,400 behind, but all expenses were under budget. Mr. Jim Salter questioned whether we should adopt a deficit budget. Cns. Ammons & DeFoor advised that this would most likely come to pass. Ben then proposed putting the quarterly budget reports on the diocesan website in full transparency. Cn. Allison DeFoor spoke up and advised the need to break the co-dependent relationships between the Diocese and parishes. The churches need adult, healthy relationships through empowerment. Ben recommended that the audit reports be presented by the Audit Committee in the future. Ben advised that the Camp and Conference Center accounting was moving back in-house vs. independent. Ben ended by advising that we would work on pledge support and relationships.

Cn. DeFoor reported that Christ Church, Ponte Vedra had closed San Pablo due to some money issues. He reported that we are looking at a lot of different options, possibly as a secular school.

Mr. Jack Tull reported on many of the Diocesan Council Ministry Group reports:

Architectural Board: Most of the Carpenter Gothic churches are in our diocese. In 1997, all Carpenter Gothic churches became a part of the Historical National Register. The diocese will need funds to support, protect and preserve these churches.

Charters & Canons: Jack Tull and Ms. Jill Dame, Chair, will have a conversation regarding the submission of canons and changes.

Historiographer: Ms. Beth Horne has asked to be taken off of this volunteer position. Bishop Howard is soliciting for suggested names at this time.

Cervený Camp & Conference Center (CCC): Bishop Howard clarified that this commission is strictly an advisory board and not involved with any management. As we will soon have the CCC in-house, we will have a monetary report from them. The Bishop noted that we need to push more Episcopal usage of CCC. New Director, Thomas Frazer, was commended for his great improvements with relationships.

Cursillo: Last weekend a Cursillo was held at CCC and it was reported that the CCC staff was excellent.

Evangelism: This committee will begin meeting monthly and working on a joint plan to grow our diocese by 4 churches in the Arlington area. Allison also reported on the following preaching stations in process and underway:

- Red Hills Congregation, Tallahassee
- Gateway Rehabilitation
- Jasper, Hamilton County, "St. Bernard's in the Pines"
- Wildlight, Yulee

Congregational Development Committee: It was decided to delete this separate committee and just leave "Evangelism & Growth". Cn. John Wesley then commended on evangelism at his new parish, St. Paul's, Federal Point. He reported on their recent ceremonial designation of Stanton Landing, at which over 200 people were in attendance, and making the front page of the newspaper.

Colleges, Schools & Young Adults: Mr. Byron Greene reported that St. Michael & All Angels is supporting the FAMU College Ministry Program through the Brooks Society. A handout of the impressive power point presentation was circulated to the council. This remains a work in progress but is coming together nicely. Byron will keep council updated.

Byron also recommended crafting a standardized report for all of the council group ministry reports. This was a popular suggestion and Byron and Jack will craft such form.

Ms. Courtney Carter suggested highlighting one of the ministries each month on the diocesan website. Jack will follow through with Emily Stimler, Communications Director, to create a link to each of the diocesan ministry reports.

Finally, Ben suggested sending out a form letter to each of the diocesan boards and committees with 4-5 generalized questions to determine whether the board or committee should remain in existence and update its membership.

The meeting concluded at 11:55 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Leigh Philips, scribe

Diocesan Council Meeting Minutes July 13, 2019

Those present: Rt. Rev. John Howard, Rt. Rev. Dorsey Henderson, Cn. Allison DeFoor, Cn. Wiley Ammons, Cn. Lance Horne, Cn. John Wesley, Cn. Jerry Smith, Cn. Bob Goolsby, Rev. Ronnie Willerer, Rev. Hugh Chapman, Mr. Jorge Maysonet, Mr. Jack Tull, Mr. Jim Salter and Mr. Byron Greene.

With a quorum of members in attendance the regular stated meeting of the Diocesan Council was called to order by the Bishop John Howard at Camp Weed, Live Oak, Florida, at 10 a.m. on Saturday, July 13, 2019. Bishop Howard opened in prayer and The Rev. Cn. Bob Goolsby provided the devotion. Bishop Howard led the Council in the Diocesan Prayer for Evangelism and Growth.

Bishop Howard reported that the funeral for Chris Keyser was well attended and that the service was properly done with Bishop Henderson being the celebrant. Bishop Keyser is very weak and limits visitors due to his failing condition.

The Rev. Aaron Smith is now the priest in charge at Grace in Orange Park. He will continue to be involved in the evangelism program.

We have four individuals currently attending seminaries and five in training to be vocational deacons. We were reminded that canon nine priests are limited to serving only at their assigned congregations.

The Bishop has been making visitations and attended an overnight prayer retreat at Camp Weed. He is looking forward to Earl Palmer's retreat at Camp Weed in September on the topic of Ephesians. Our next Diocesan Convention will return to Camp Weed and be held on January 25th in the one-day format as was done previously. Bishop Howard and Bishop Henderson are visiting prisons to conduct confirmations. The Bishop wants churches to support the P.O.S.T. meetings that are aimed at helping church staff members with their administrative duties.

The Rev. Cn. Allison DeFoor talked on the Budget Peer Review Committee meetings with churches that were failing to meet their 10% tithe to the Diocese. The meetings are not confrontational and are intended to help churches with problems prohibiting them from meeting their tithe. The Rev. Cn. Ammons asked if he could attend the meetings as regional canon and was told yes. The tithe problem continued with the discussion of the General Convention establishing the requirements for each Diocese to increase their contribution from 10% to 15%.

Mr. Jorge Maysonet provided the treasurer's report. Revenues for the first six months were $506,000 on a budget of $531,000 and expenses were $628,000 on a budget of $740,000.

Mr. Jack Tull and Mr. Byron Greene discussed the work being done on the reports' format for ministry reviews. A lot of work has gone into making the reports user friendly and useful for the Council. Ministry reports are due at the next meeting, October 19th, 2019.

There being no further business to come before the Council the meeting was adjourned at 11:45 a.m. with prayer led by Bishop Howard.

Respectfully submitted,
The Rev. Cn. Lance C. Horne, Secretary

Diocesan Council Meeting Minutes September 14, 2019

A regular stated meeting of the Diocesan Council was held in the Ravine Conference Room at Camp Weed, Live Oak, Florida on Saturday, September 14, 2019. There being a quorum of members present the meeting was called to order by Bishop Howard at 10 am. The meeting opened with the Diocesan Prayer for Evangelism and Growth. Bishop Howard led the Council us in a devotion and reflection on Paul's letter to the church in Corinth. The theme was on the necessity to give generously from the heart, in other words our gifts have to come from a desire and willingness to give freely from what we have. Giving that is forced by intimidation misses the spiritual importance of commitment to Christ's work from the individual's heart. The Spirit leads with vision that will produce the resources to accomplish the vision. We lose sight of our mission to serve Jesus Christ when we become overly focused on the money and the return on investment.

The council was invited by the Bishop to reflect on Scripture in light of the issue of the increase from ten to fifteen percent in giving to the national church. A majority of the council voiced concern of the impact it would have on our churches that were already struggling financially. There was also concern over the national church penalizing those Dioceses that did not give fifteen percent thereby altering the tradition of freely giving from the heart. Some voiced concern that we should give the fifteen percent because we should support the decision of the national church. We decided that we needed to discuss further in an effort to reach consensus.

The minutes were approved as read.

The Bishop reported that the Diocese was spared from any major damage from hurricane Dorian. The Rev. Cn. Aaron Smith is now serving at Grace, in Orange Park. He will continue to serve the Diocese in the Evangelism effort. Bishop announced that the Rev. Cn. John Wesley and the Rev. Cn. Lance Horne had been relieved as regional canons and were made honorary canons for their service to the Diocese. Ms. Wanda Masters is the new historiographer of the Diocese replacing Mrs. Beth Horne.

Mr. Ben Hill provided the treasurer's report. As of August 31, 2019 our revenues were $618,208 on a budget of $632,532. Our expenses were $702,947 on a budget of $797,252. The support we received from the Foundation and Nehemiah funds were $151,668 on a budget of $251,417. We have $76,509 in delinquent payments that are being pursued with the churches involved. The treasurer asked for clarification from the council on guidance to develop the budget based on ten or fifteen percent giving. The council voted seven to two to develop the budget on fifteen percent.

Mr. Jack Tull led the presentation of the 3rd Quarter Ministry Reports that were provided to the members. Mr. Byron Greene reported that his efforts to improve and streamline the ministry report format was making progress.

There being no further business to come before the council the meeting was adjourned at 1:15 pm in prayer led by Bishop Howard.

Respectfully submitted,
The Rev. Cn. Lance C. Horne, secretary

Diocesan Council Meeting Minutes December 7, 2019

A regular stated meeting of the Diocesan Council was held at the Diocesan House, Jacksonville, Florida on Saturday, December 7, 2019. There being a quorum of members present the meeting was called to order at 10am by Bishop Howard. Canon Allison DeFoor provided a reflection from the Book of Amos on staying focused during difficult times on the task to devote our hearts to the Lord by following his teachings.

Bishop Howard shared that Christopher Dell was ordained to the priesthood at the Episcopal School on December 4th and that Monica Bosque would be ordained on January 19, 2020. The Bishop commented that the clergy Advent party was well attended with over 140 in attendance and that it was a very enjoyable evening.

Canon DeFoor reported that we had some vacancies in the Diocese and that he was working on some potential individuals to fill those vacancies. The effort at Yulee is looking good. St. Peter's Fernandina has been a continuous help in this project.

Mr. Ben Hill provided the treasurer's summary. He reported that our 2019 revenue was very close to budget with an actual of $2,059,253 to the budget of $2,080,843. Our expenses were $247,000 under our budget of $2,611,877. He commented that our 2019 expenses were $153,000 less than our expenses for this same period last year. The budget peer review committee will see if they can help the churches that are 90 or more days late in their pledges.

The Rev. George Hinchliffe presented the proposed common ministry budget for 2020. The budget reflected a $764,636 reduction in support compared to the 2019 budget and a reduction of $602,115 in expenses to the 2019 budget. These are major reductions that made the budget formulation a very difficult project. The council thanked The Rev. Hinchliffe and his committee for creating this very difficult budget. The Council unanimously approved the proposed 2020 budget.

Resolution 2020-001 for convention was presented. This resolution recommended a change to Canon 25 on the election of Trustees to the University of the South. This resolution failed by vote. Resolution 2020-002 for a Canon 3 amendment was tabled. Resolution 2020-003 that addressed the 15% asking will be presented at the Diocesan Convention and will become Resolution 2020-001. The Council unanimously approved the Housing Allowance Resolution for 2020 with the correction that The Rev. Beth Tjoflat housing allowance be changed to reflect $50,000.

Mr. Jack Tull will send the ministry contact information changes to the chairpersons by email. This is the last council meeting for Mr. Tull. The Council thanked him for his dedicated service on the Council.

There being no further business to come before the Council the meeting was adjourned in prayer led by Bishop Howard at 12:25 pm.

Respectfully submitted,
The Rev. Cn. Lance C. Horne

CUBA COMPANIONSHIP MINISTRY THIRD QUARTER REPORT FOR 2019

Submitted by Chair Julia Sullivan, September 2019

Membership of the Diocesan Cuba Companionship Ministry (Dio CCM): More than 300 named "members," too many to list here. A "steering committee" of members assist Chair Julie Sullivan with ongoing organization and activity development: Rev. Dn. Phyllis Doty, Kathleen Whiting, Linda Wilcox, Claude Moulton (Co-Chair Jacksonville Area 22 churches), Marilyn Peterson (Co-Chair Gainesville Area 13 churches), and Julie Sullivan (Co-Chair Tallahassee Area 5 churches).

The Dio CCM spent much of this year 2019 adjusting to the impact of the 2018 REUNIFICATION of the Episcopal Church of Cuba (ECCuba) with TEC [see review of this historic event, attachment #1]. For example, TEC is now funding higher salaries for the priests in Cuba ($150/month ~ vs. $55/month last year). Therefore, the FL Dio CCM will now convert their annual campaign for Cuban priest salary boosters into joining and contributing to PB Michael Curry's capital campaign to fund a minimum base of $800,000.00 for the Cuban Priest Pension Fund [see PB's campaign promo, attachment #2]. Floridians have been responding online to this national Pension campaign and by snail mail checks ... Thank you, Dio of FL ECW, who, at our request, gave $1,000.00 to the Cuba Pension Fund in August 2019.

One of our other Diocesan projects did not turn out so well. The Cuba bus waiting for 2 years in Jacksonville to be shipped to Cuba had to be sold at a significant loss in June because of Cuban authorities' delays and vacillation on granting any import permissions.

The Dio CCM has also been implementing the transition plans of Bishop Griselda Delgado as the ECCuba is absorbed into Province II (New York, New Jersey, Europe) of TEC and where the business and canonical education of ECCuba will be conducted. However, Bishop Griselda confirms that the Diocese of Florida in its 35th year remains the home and heart of Companionship with Cuban Episcopalians. She asks that we stay the course in our walk with Christ and that we assist in welcoming and introducing the numerous new churches and dioceses throughout America to the idea and spirit of life-long Companionship with Cuban churches. Julie Sullivan will be traveling to Cuba together with a new group from Nantucket in November and Marilyn Peterson will be adding a Boston group with her mission trip to Cuba in December.

Julie Sullivan, Marilyn Peterson and Vickie Haskew with input from Bishop Griselda have been updating the church-to-church companionship pairings and updating contacts and email info for everybody. Moreover, our Dio CCM is now coordinating well with the nationwide strategy for Cuba, "Ichthus," developed by Jeremy and Pat Cage, St. Luke's-Darien CT, captured at resource website www.FriendsofECCuba.org and parented by the Cages and the international "Friends of the Episcopal Church of Cuba." Most of the volunteers of FL Dio CCM are inaugural, subscription members of this web-based Friends of ECCuba.

Holy Trinity-Gainesville has continued collaborating with St. John's-Lafayette Square DC and with the Rev. Gus Chrysson, VTS grad and now of St. Mary's-High Point NC, in leading the American-Cuban Music Ministry, now in its third year. The annual Music Festival normally takes place in November at the Cathedral Santísima Trinidad in Havana. This year, however, the Festival will be in Cardenas, Cuba, not Havana.

In June 2019 additional US governmental restrictions continued to be placed on Americans traveling to Cuba and vice-versa for Cubans to America. However, the traditional procedures of traveling with a religious visa obtained from Bishop Griselda's office are still honored and allow smooth passage into Cuba to fulfill our religious activities and mission projects. St. John's Cathedral and St. Mark's-Jax being the first to install water purification systems at St. Mary's in Itabo and at the Cathedral several years ago, installation of this life and health saving project has been continued and expanded by St. John's-Tally and other frequent traveling companions from St. Luke's-Live Oak, Christ Church-Ponte Vedra, St. Francis in the Fields-Nocatee, St. Paul's by the Sea-Jax Beach, St. George's-Jax, Holy Comforter-Tallahassee, St. Alban's-Chiefland, Holy Trinity-Gainesville, and NEW COMPANION CHURCH = TRINITY PARISH-ST. AUGUSTINE, who will replace expired St. Michael's-Gainesville in companionship with San Juan Evangelista in Bacuranao, Cuba. Joined by other Episcopal churches from New York, Minnesota, Connecticut, Virginia, Wyoming via the Friends of ECCuba, some 25 of the 51 Episcopal churches/missions in Cuba now serve their own parishioners and their main-street communities with fresh, purified, potable water ... a welcomed and grateful first for thirst in most of these rural churches and communities.

The US no longer has an embassy, not even an interest office, in Cuba. The granting of visas to Cubans to visit the US has become extraordinarily difficult, even for Cuban clergy with US church sponsors. They must now travel to another country to interview for their $160 US visas and unappealable denials are becoming the norm. Those clergy and family members traveling with them who were lucky enough to have received 5-year multiple entry visas or who hold Spanish passports (e.g., Bishop Griselda, some of her family members, Dean Jose Angel, Fr. Junco) can still visit with us here more frequently until visa expiration. Will Irby and Fr. Harold Ritchie were fortunate to welcome Deacon Adreano Fuentes and his wife Yuly of Santísima Trinidad-Morón to St. Alban's-Chiefland in August. But the US is no longer granting the 5-year visa versions, only one-time entry visas from here out ... a further curtailment to the crux of companionship ... the ability to develop relationships, friendships by breaking bread together.

Indeed, we feel the Holy Spirit moving us on to continue enthusiastically with our mission vision, to overcome the discomfitures we may experience along the way, and to rejoice in the evangelism and reciprocal love with our Cuban brothers and sisters in joyful service to our Lord Christ Jesus. We are so grateful to Bishop Howard for inviting Bishop Griselda to attend our Florida Convention on January 24 and 25, 2020. We eagerly look forward to having her join us at an annual Dio ECCuba meeting and dinner after the Convention. May the spiritual breezes from the land of the palm trees flow through us in Florida and spread their song of unity and healing to and throughout our sister states in the land of amber waves of grain with purple mountains' majesty.

Cursillo Ministry Report 2019

DeColores,

2019 was a wonderful year for the Cursillo Ministry. Approximately one hundred, thirty people participated in the three weekends held in 2019.

In March, Dee Dugger led our third co-ed Cursillo Weekend in the Diocese of Florida. We used a shortened format beginning on Friday evening and concluding on Sunday afternoon. The weekend was a huge success and Shelton Armour is in the process of preparing for our fourth co-ed weekend scheduled for March 19-22, 2020.

In the fall we held two wonderful weekends using the four-day format. The men's weekend was led by Guy Bond and the women's was led by Faith Jones. This year we will hold the men's weekend September 24-27, 2020 and a women's weekend October 1-4, 2020.

On May 2, 2020, we are planning an Ultreya at Camp Weed and hope to have as many people as possible help us celebrate Cursillo #143 and the ministry of Cursillo in this diocese since 1970. We plan to have worship, workshops, fellowship and food. Mark your calendars now, details will follow soon.

Cursillo is blessed with the support of Bishop Howard, Sandy Tull, our Spiritual Director, the clergy of the diocese who serve on team and the members of the Cursillo Community who support the ministry in countless ways.

Cursillo provides those who attend an opportunity to grow in faith and in spirituality. It offers an opportunity for a deeper understanding of the teachings of Jesus and how we can serve Him. Those attending experience living and sharing with others in a loving, caring Christian community and learn that this can be extended into our own environment. In addition, it provides a continuing community that gives support and encouragement to help Christians carry out their Baptismal Vows.

If you have not already done so, we invite you attend a Cursillo weekend. Ask your rector to connect you with someone in your church who has already been to Cursillo or contact me.

Respectfully submitted,

Roni Kelly

President Wiles shared information from Province IV and the board made plans for the year.

We participated in the ECW/DOK Retreat at Cervený Conference Center in April.

Several DOK members from the Diocese attended the annual summer weekend Retreat at Kanuga Conference Center in NC. President Wiles presented a workshop on Praying the Scriptures.

The Fall Board Meeting was held at All Saints, Jacksonville on August 24. Chapter Presidents joined the Executive Board in conducting the business of the Order.

One hundred members attended Fall assembly held on Saturday, September 14, hosted by St. Margaret Queen of Scotland Chapter at St. Andrew's, Jacksonville. Following the service and lunch, a representative of Rethreaded gave a heart-felt talk on the impact of trafficking on her and others and the help they have received in Jacksonville to turn their lives around. We then heard from National President Krisita Jackson who shared her journey saying "Yes! to God. Offerings from the service went to Grace Mission, Tallahassee.

In October, twelve Daughters and one clergy spouse from our diocese traveled to Kanuga Conference Center in NC to attend the annual DOK Province IV Fall Assembly. We enjoyed a week of worship, fellowship, and inspiration under Bishop Brewer of the Diocese of Central Florida. President Margaret Wiles and Susan Towson serve on the Province IV Assembly Board. Susan also serves on the National Daughters of the King Board.

President's Report 2019

My first event of the year was a visit to Holy Trinity in Gainesville, Florida. I was asked to present the Ministry Report of the Diocese of Florida, Episcopal Church Women. After the service, there was time to meet the membership at coffee hour and tour their unique Thrift Shop.

The end of January was the annual Convention for our Diocese of Florida held at our Episcopal Camp and Conference Center in Live Oak, FL. The diocesan reports were given and Eucharist was shared by the membership. I had the privilege of photographing one of our board members as she received a special recognition. Dee Dugger, our UTO Chairman, was one of four in our diocese presented with the Bishop's Cross Award.

Our Diocesan ECW schedule began with the Winter Meeting in February hosted by St. Catherine's, Jacksonville. The program was given by The Rev. Cn. Dr. Allison DeFoor, Canon to the Ordinary for the Diocese of Florida. Canon DeFoor provided information on the prison ministry in the Diocese of Florida. This is a very active ministry as we have the most prisons of the four dioceses in our state. He discussed the history of the prison system, the state of the ministry today and made suggestions for members to contribute as individuals and parishes.

The Girl's Friendly Society was introduced at this meeting as a new program for our young ladies. Our delegation at the General Convention in Austin, Texas was impressed with the GFS group who attended and served at our Triennial Meeting. Printed materials were provided to members and emailed later to the ECW Presidents in our diocese.

In the spring we added a new board member, Ann Cawthon, serving on the Older Adult Ministry for our diocese. We are pleased to have Ann as our representative and liaison with this group.

April is the month for our ECW/DOK Spring Retreat planned by Dorothy Young-Holder, President- Elect. We had 9 ladies in attendance this year and the number of first-time attendees was higher than past years. Our presenter was The Rev. Ann Bowers, Deacon, St. Mary's, Green Cove Springs. Her presentation "Finding your gifts in God's World" helped us to discover more about our gifts as individuals, family and parish members. Several workshops were also provided for us to enjoy. Thank you, Dorothy for a special weekend.

Our diocesan outreach ministry for this year is St. Mary's, Jacksonville, chaired by MaryAnn Braddock. This is an inner-city ministry and we are asking for monetary donations from our ECW members and parishes to help Mothers and children, many of whom live in poverty. There is also a need for volunteers to assist at their center with patrons and office needs.

In June I attended the Province IV ECW Retreat & Meeting at the Trinity Conference Center at Salter Path, North Carolina. Our keynote speaker, Chris Butterworth, presented "Godly Harmony, Transformation & Renewal in Today's World. Additional workshops were also provided on several new ministries being shared throughout our dioceses. We were welcomed and given a Carolina update by Bishop Robert Skirving, Bishop of East Carolina and Chancellor at Suwanee. Our National ECW President, Karen Patterson was also in attendance and reported on the work of our National Board Members and future plans. It was an enjoyable three days as we learned, made new friends and shared information with our peers.

Our Diocesan ECW Board met for the half-day summer board meeting on August 17th at St. Joseph's, Newberry. Reports from our officers and committees were presented. Future plans and projects were discussed, and preparations were made for the Annual Meeting in October. The Board decided to ask ECW Presidents past and current to update the Annual Meeting Plan before next October 2020. After the business meeting we shared a salad luncheon and enjoyed fellowship time.

October 19th was our Diocesan ECW Annual Meeting. Becky Taylor Scott, Province IV ECW President was guest speaker. St. Paul's, Federal Point served as the Host Church. After sharing Eucharist, we had our business meeting to present the annual reports and committee updates. A catered lunch was served by our St. Paul's ladies.

As I listened to Karen Patterson, NECW President's presentation at our Province IV Retreat discussing "Why have an ECW?" Two of her reasons summed up several of my thoughts for this year – "we need women to show us how to be closer to Christ" and "women need each other", I am finding both of these to be more relevant in my life as I serve as President.

2019 Real Estate Summary Report

Prepared by Benjamin Hill, Treasurer

The Diocese of Florida has $342,222,700 in insured property valued by the Church Insurance Group.

Several projects were evaluated and approved including a youth education building at St. Francis in the Field, and a capital renovation project at St. John's/Tallahassee. A major new plant is in conceptual development at Wildlight/St. Timothy's/Nassau.

The Diocese focused on generating cash flow on non-Episcopal occupied properties through leasing and holding mortgages. This income is deposited into the Nehemiah Fund which is used to help grow our denomination in areas of future opportunity.

The sale of non-strategic property is pending at 4315 23rd Avenue, Gainesville. This contract with Wilson Group was amended in July. Final re-zoning must be completed by May 31, 2020. The developer will again approach the City of Gainesville with a P.U.D. (Planned Unit Development) mixed commercial zoning change with a less dense development plan. This has been a contentious project with the Suburban Heights residents. Progress has been made and the remaining obstacle is traffic mitigation.

There were several other sales closed or pending – Ethiopian Church, 10679 Old St. Augustine Road, San Pablo, and Williston.

Leaky roof problems is a common issue in the Diocese. Emmanuel/Welaka, Christ Church/Monticello, Ruge Hall, St. Paul's by the Creek are among facilities either repaired or in need of renovation.

Ongoing exploration of property/casualty insurance cost-saving options are being examined.

Education for Ministry (EfM)

Education for Ministry is a four-year small group program designed to equip lay persons interested in furthering their own spiritual development beyond adult Sunday school classes. The program was developed by and is supervised by the University of the South, School of Theology, Sewanee.

The co-coordinators for EfM in the Diocese of Florida are Virginia Carpenter (virginia.apelian@gmail.com) and Malinda Harris (malinda61@comcast.net). The coordinators manage training events yearly so that the School of Theology, is assured that the mentors of these groups receive ongoing support to ensure a quality experience for each group member. The trainers are sent by Sewanee from around the United States. The 2019 training held at Camp Weed, held February 7-9, hosted 13 participants, and the 2020 training, to be held February 6-8, has 14 registered. The Diocese of Florida has eleven groups meeting around the diocese.

The co-coordinators field questions from around the diocese and the United States. New Episcopalians from other places call us to find locations of groups, and lay and clergy alike inquire about beginning a group in the diocese. We welcome the opportunity to further explain this outstanding program, which can benefit a parish in forming well-educated lay ministries. We offer our appreciation to the Diocese of Florida, and in particular The Rev. Cn. Dr. Douglas Dupree, The Rev. Cn. Dr. Allison, DeFoor, and Sue Engemann for their assistance.

Hispanic Committee Overview 2019

The Hispanic Committee for 2019 was composed of the Rev. Canon Allison Defoor and myself. We remained in communication most the year via email due to diverging schedules and time constraints.

We did however collaborate on the status of candidates to the local priesthood of at least two of our Latino missionaries, discussed budgetary issues, possible sites of Latino Ministries for the future and spoke of reconvening the Hispanic Commission, which used to be active in previous years, to help with vision casting for Hispanic ministries.

We were able to meet informally at diocesan house of two occasions to discuss the ministries at Santa Catalina and San Francisco del Campo and towards the end of 2019 were able to hold a meeting with all the clergy who are responsible for Hispanic Ministry of whose parishes host a service.

Challenges we faced during the year included the sudden retirement of Fr. Guillermo Cordoba, vicar at San Francisco del Campo after a corneal detachment, clergy coverage at missions when there is a vacancy or vacation, transition at San Francisco del Campo, as questions about a clear educational and ministry path for persons from other denominations who want to join the Episcopal Church as local priests for Hispanic Ministries.

Overall despite challenges 2019 was a year of growth and consolidation for our Hispanic Ministries. We have experienced steady growth at Santa Catalina and San Francisco. Christ Church begun a Spanish Language service under the leadership of Fr. Andreis Diaz which is off to an excellent start. St. Luke's, our first Spanish Language parish continues to be active in the Arlington area where there is an influx of Spanish Speakers.

Episcopal Chapel of the Incarnation 2020 Convention Report

The Chapel of the Incarnation, affectionately called Chapel House, is a vibrant Episcopal Christian ministry among the students, faculty, and staff in the University of Florida and Santa Fe College communities.

We are a worshipping body committed to helping people enjoy, love, and serve the Lord Jesus Christ. As a member of the global Anglican Communion of Churches, our desire is to participate in the university community as a lively center for learning, discovery, and the pursuit of wisdom that will bless and enrich our culture and world for the sake of Christ.

“If it weren’t for this ministry, [my child] would have withdrawn from University of Florida freshman year. S/he was having a really difficult time before finding the Chapel. Thank you for welcoming [my child] in – it makes a huge difference.” These were the words of a concerned father who contacted me a few months ago to let me know he was so grateful that his student had gotten connected at Chapel of the Incarnation. It’s a poignant reminder that so many faces in the swarm of 50,000+ undergraduate and graduate students walking the campus at UF really are “sheep without a shepherd.”

There has been steady growth the past year and a half in my time at the Chapel. We have seen Sunday worship bloom from a small handful in summer of 2018 to an average attendance of 38 this fall! Wednesday weekly Bible Study and dinner participation has risen from 10 to 23 on average! And new people are connecting regularly to the faith community through outreaches, service projects, and simple Christian hospitality. A rotation of a dozen generous churches provide Sunday evening dinners to feed the college crowd, and we are so thankful for not only the home-style experience, but for the partnership in building up young leaders. The future of the church is bright because ministries like Incarnation are calling, engaging, and equipping the leaders of tomorrow. Hear from a couple of current students:

“My experience at the Chapel of the Incarnation has been among the most formative of my college career. It has been one of my greatest honors serving on the student elected Missions Board for two consecutive years. Coming in as a freshman, I was on the search for the next place I would make my home, as many do when they begin a college career. I found the Chapel of the Incarnation to be a place where I could be myself, grow my faith, and surround myself with good people who cared for me. I can confidentially say that the people I have met over these four short years will be lifelong friends. The friends and mentors made at the Chapel have allowed me to make my faith my own and strengthen my walk with Christ.” – Stephen Keith

“Chapel of the Incarnation is such a welcoming environment and has helped me realize just how thankful I was to grow up in the Episcopal Church. I’ve found a great community of belonging at the Chapel, and others have too!” – Jenny White

Diocese of Florida Older Adult Ministry
2019 Annual Report

This was a busy year for the Older Adult Ministry.

On May 4, the 10th Celebrations of Marriages of 50 Years and More were held at St. John's Cathedral, Jacksonville, and Holy Comforter Church, Tallahassee. The Rt. Rev. Samuel Johnson Howard celebrated and preached at the service at the Cathedral. The Rev. Cn. Jerry Smith celebrated and preached at Holy Comforter.

Gala receptions for the couples and their guests were held at both locations following the services. The reception at the Cathedral was co-sponsored by Aging True, a Medicare certified home health care agency in Jacksonville.

Redeeming Our Time: Spirituality and Retirement was the theme of our retreat at the Cerveney Conference Center, Live Oak, October 18-19. Retreat leader was The Rev. Bud Holland, EFM Mentor Trainer and former CREDO resource.

We also opened a Facebook page, Older Adult Ministry, to encourage sharing of ideas regarding programs and activities by persons engaged in the ministry, what works, what doesn't work, etc. We encourage persons from all denominations to participate.

We began strategic planning for moving the Older Adult Ministry and look forward to the year, 2020, with enthusiasm. Please include this ministry in your prayers.

Report of the
PASTORAL CARE COMMISSION to the Diocesan Council
and to the 2020 Annual Convention of the
EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF FLORIDA

Bishop Howard, by pastoral letter distributed to clergy of the Diocese dated September 20, 2017—following the hurricanes which caused significant damage in Florida, including our diocese, wrote, in part: “In light of the stress and anxiety of the past two weeks, this is a moment...for us to pause, take a deep breath and care for ourselves”. He made several proposals designed to do that, including the reconstitution of the then inactive Pastoral Care Commission and charged the commission “with assisting me in providing pastoral care ministry for you and your families”. The Commission believes that this charge includes providing resources for the clergy in their pastoral care for the people in their congregations, so that the entire diocese benefits and is spiritually strengthened

Having met face-to-face during the Fall Clergy Conference of 2017, members of the Commission consulted with each other thereafter by telephone and email to prepare its recommendations to Bishop Howard. A report of those recommendations was submitted to the Bishop on Tuesday of Easter Week, 2018.

Although the Chair has been in occasional email communications with the other members, the Commission has not met during calendar year 2019.

Respectfully submitted,

(The Right Rev'd) Dorsey F. Henderson, Jr., Chair

Prison Ministry:

During this last year we he continued to minister to the inmates and staff of the Florida Department of Corrections.

A new Secretary has been appointed to the Department. Secretary Mark Inch is a retired Major General, U.S. Army, and served as the head of the military prison system. He brings a wealth of knowledge to the job and from all indications that I have seen, is dedicated to improving the environment of both inmates and staff.

We have ministered to more than 10,000 inmates last year, between services and personal visits. This is about 10% of all inmates held by FDOC. We are currently in 15 of the 30 prisons in our diocese. We involve all orders, Bishop, Priest, Deacon, and Laity in this ministry.

This year, we returned to the Main Unit at Suwannee CI with 3 services.

For those, like me, who are numbers oriented, here are some for the western end of the diocese.

8 prisons, 196 services, 3090 attendees, 2576 communicants. I should mention that there are only 184 Episcopalians in the entire Department of Corrections.

For Canon Defoor:

| Prison | #of Services | Attendees | Communicants |
|---------|--------------|-----------|--------------|
| WCI | 51 | 1630 | 1343 |
| GRF | 51 | 836 | 609 |

Co-chair, Commission on Prison and Related Ministries

Chapel of the Resurrection in Tallahassee is your ministry to college students at FSU and TCC. 2019 was a good year for us. Please keep us in your prayers and visit our website www.rugehall.org for more information and follow us on facebook for current events. As always, we still need your support as students can't fund what they receive.

- Our main events each week are Sunday services at 3pm and Thursday evening discipleship group at 7pm. But, key to our increasing health is our micro-groups which help ensure every student is known and growing in their walk with Jesus.
- A plaque on the wall calls us 'the center of Christian Culture on campus' and it is becoming more and more true. The donations based coffee house we host keeps the building full when Grace Mission's afterschool program or other discipleship programs aren't running. We also hosted the joint outreach of 14 ministries to FSU to new students in August.
- In 2019 Attendance has grown by every mark. Our fall Sunday average attendance was 15.75 up from 12.58 in the spring and 11 in 2018.
- Tucker Adkins (our 2018-2019 fellow for discipleship who was funded with increased parking income) won an Episcopal Church Foundation Fellowship. Watch for his PhD work to also benefit our broader church. He moved and so we have a number of undergraduate fellows in another sort of discipleship training.
- Income, mostly from parking and a little from donations is substantially up.

Here are some quotes from our students:

- "Since I've started coming to micro-group every Thursday it has been nothing short of fulfilling. I can't explain how much microgroup means to me and my walk with the Lord." Jesse Belc-Powell
 - "Ruge Hall allows me to grow in faith and fellowship while being surrounded in a family where God's love surpasses all." Jason Flack
 - "This ministry is important to me because every week it grounds me in the Word and sets me up for success." - Kristie Kirk
 - "This church family has helped me so much with my faith journey. I have learned so much about how to incorporate my faith with my education." - Gabby Harris
- The Chapel of the Resurrection has become my church home, where I have not only expanded my family, but have also found God for myself through his scripture and teachings." -Amanda Pointer
